SQL Agent Insight is a useful utility designed to monitor performance for your Microsoft SQL Agent engine. Enables the DBA to focus on other higher priority tasks while the software monitors 40+ key metrics of the Agent engine providing feedback in a colorful, eye-popping, easy to read interface for quick identification of problem areas. SQL Agent Insight includes: and much more! SQL Agent Insight Features Icons: Yes Time & Date: No SQL Server error indicators: No SQL Server server memory: No CPU: No Hard disk space: No Operating system: Yes Support, system requirements, license, and setup: Yes Full system and security scan: No Review the complete list of features and requirements. Using SQL Agent Insight SQL Agent Insight: Tools > SQL Agent Insight 1. Use the SQL Agent Insight interface to view a list of major metrics and error indicators. Warning! Do not execute any commands in the SQL Agent Insight interface unless you are a member of the Administrators group on the server. The first time you run SQL Agent Insight, it will scan your SQL Agent engine, search for errors, and build a list of possible problems. The scan takes about 5 minutes on a medium server. 2. Once SQL Agent Insight is installed, select from the list of metrics to monitor. (The list may change depending on the selected metrics. If you don't see the metrics you're looking for, click the Search tab and enter the metric name.) The list displays a summary of the selected metric. 3. Drag the slider to select the appropriate threshold. Your selected metrics are constantly monitored and if a threshold is reached, an alarm notification appears. When SQL Agent Insight is installed, its icon appears in the Notification area in the taskbar. You can also see the icon in the system tray. By default, SQL Agent Insight is set to monitor the following metrics: Wait_Count Error_Count SQL_HOST_POPULATION CPU_Utilization Memory_Utilization Memory_Used_KB Memory_Reservation_KB SQL_Instance_Name Server_Name Login_Name Current_Logon_Time Memory_Reservation_KB Currently, SQL Agent Insight

Although this Agent level utility is not a complete replacement for the SQL Agent Analyzer Agent Diagnostics Tool, it provides a valuable tool for a DBA to focus on other higher priority tasks while the software monitors your SQL Agent engine. Monitoring the key metrics in Agent Insight allows a DBA to see how SQL Agent responds to various changes made to the engine and see which changes cause the most dramatic changes in the key metrics. Key metrics include: - Agent Statistics including the number of jobs, jobs per minute, job log file, & the duration of the agent - Logs - Time of the most recent log creation and the most recent log since you logged in - Jobs - The number of jobs running in the engine, the number of jobs in the Last Job History, the number of jobs queued for execution, the number of jobs currently being waited on, the job completion rate, and the running job session average time and the last job started. - Execution - The number of executions in the Last Job History, the number of executions currently running, the number of executions queued for execution, the job completion rate, and the job completion time. - Execution Statistics - The number of executions in the Last Job History, the number of executions currently running, the number of executions queued for execution, the job completion rate, and the job completion time. - Jobs - The number of jobs currently running and queued, the
